

Cambridge Trauma Resuscitation (CTR) symposium-Beyond ATLS

12th September 2023

Approved for 6 CPD credits by RCSEd

This one day symposium uses a case-based learning approach to review the up-to-date Emergency Department management of major trauma patients

Date-Tuesday 12th September 2023

Cost- £175

Location -Wyboston Lakes, Great North Road, Wyboston, Bedfordshire MK44 3AL

To book visit -

<https://cambridgemededucation.co.uk>

PROGRAMME

- 08:45 – 09:00 Demonstration of audience participation
- 09:00 – 09:15 Introduction – setting the scene
- 09:15 – 09:45 Pre-arrival preparation –forming the flash trauma team
- 09:45 – 10:30 A – The ABCD of emergency airway management
- 10:30 – 11:00 B – Ventilatory support and lung protection
- 11:00 – 11:15 Coffee Break
- 11:15 – 12:15 C – Circulatory support and haemorrhage control
- 12:15 – 13:15 Lunch Break
- 13:15 – 14:15 D – Neurological injury and neuroprotection
- 14:15 – 14:45 E – Wound protection and environmental control
- 14:45 – 15:00 Coffee Break
- 15:00 –16:00 Disposition planning: CT, IR, theatre or ITU
- 16:00 – 16:45 Panel discussion
- 16:45 – 17:00 Summary and close

The symposium incorporates:

- Traumatic Cardiac Arrest on arrival.
- Identifying and managing the shocked patient.
- Transfusion decision making and challenges.
- Implementing neuroprotective strategies.
- Damage controlled strategies

CTR symposium is evolved from and completely revamped version of DCR symposium which was rated excellent or good by 97.5 percent delegates

